Most of our life is a series of images, that pass us by like towns on the highway, but sometimes a moment stuns us as it happens and this instant is more than a fleeting image. We know that this moment, every part of it will live on forever.

Troy: That's one of my biggest fears. Abed: What is? Troy: if I like, woke up as a donut. Abed: You would eat yourself? Troy: I wouldn't even question it. -Community Ned: Everyone wants stuff. We wake up everyday with a list of wishes a mile long and maybe we spend our lives trying to make those wishes come true. But just because we want them doesn't mean we need them to be happy. -Pushing Daisies Hakuna Matata, what a wonderful phrase.

Robert Bartalini

Karina Bekelian

Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our dark that most frightens us. Your playing small does not serve the world. There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We are all meant to shine as children do. It's not just in some of us; it's in everyone. And as we let our own lights shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others. -Coach Carter

Some are like water, some are like the heat
Some are a melody and some are the beat
Sooner or later they all will be gone
Why don't they stay young It's so hard to get old without a cause I don't want to perish like a fading horse
Youth is like diamonds in the sun
And diamonds are forever
Alphaville I love my chubies forever, thanks for everything over the years<3

"To me, there are three things we all should do every day. We should do this every day of our lives. Number one is laugh. You should laugh every day. Number two is think. You should spend some time in thought. And number three is, you should have your emotions moved to tears, could be happiness or joy. But think about it. If you laugh, you think, and you cry, that's a full day. That's a heck of a day. You do that seven days a week, you're going to have something special." Jimmy V

Alas, said the mouse, the world is growing smaller every day. At the beginning it was so big that I was afraid, I kept running and running, and I was glad when at last I saw walls far away to the right and left, but these long walls have narrowed so quickly that I am in the last chamber already, and there in the corner stands the trap that I must run into. You only need to change your direction, said the cat, and ate it up.

Life comes at you all at once; respect it the right way and it will treat you back. Live life moment by moment, it's an amazing thing what freewill can do to some people.

"Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some stay for a while and leave footprints on our hearts. And we are never, ever the same." My cheerleaders, the old-school crew, the guys, & all my special girls who have stayed by my side, I'll love you always & forever.

Hope everyone had great time here at BHS! I'm going to miss the crew club, our crazy coaches, and especially Alanna and Dans famous arguments while the rest of us laugh on. Also the good times in art class in Milos room with everyone. Thanks to my teachers, friends, and especially my crazy parents (love you guys!). It's been a good four years, now onto the next thing.

A Message from the Senior Class President

Dearest 2010ers,

As I waited in the feisty mob anxiously anticipating 6th Man t-shirts the week before February break, the elbows and knees banging into my back and legs somehow gave me a sudden pang of nostalgia. I realized that this was one of the last moments I would be surrounded by many of you. You, with whom I went to Winn Brook; rivaled in BYBA; joked with in the back of Mr. Hansen's orchestra class and ran into at Iggy's during frees. You are remarkable people and it has been a privilege to spend the past thirteen years with all of you.

I am proud to know you as people who support one another. We have attended one another's concerts, theatrical productions, after-school events, club meetings, games, tournaments and much more. I hope you will continue to support one another in future endeavors and through the years ahead of us.

We are all familiar with Mahatma Gandhi's words "you must be the change you wish to see in the world". I hope you will continue to take initiative on projects and causes about which you are passionate. In our four years at Belmont High, you have been the initiators of the changes you wish to see in our world in many ways. From organizing service projects and activities, to starting clubs and musical groups, to coordinating school spirit events, you have taken the reins on the things about which you care. Your combination of talents, interests and opinions have helped you to accomplish these and many more things. Please do not stop being proactive citizens. It is this drive that will allow us to hold steady on the values that mean the most to and for us—the drive that will provide meaningful changes in our communities on a local, national and global level for the better.

Congratulations on a job well done! Pursuing an education is not always easy but I hope you will continue to seize every opportunity that comes your way to learn. My best wishes are with you always! I look forward to seeing you in the future at reunions, and more presently, at Anna's and Rancatore's.

Cheers and Love,

Katie

What is one thing BHS does not know about you?

Kaitlin Schwartz- I am enrolled in the Belmont Hill School.

Cory Stratford- How much I appreciate what Mike Wynott has given to BHS.

Annie Leccese- I am a wizard.

Joe Canina- My dog is named Joe's Dog (JD).

Mike Wynott- I am blessed enough to have played along side Cory Stratford.

Zack Panosian- I have a tail.

Katie Christensen- I have been on stilts this whole time.

Melanie Nehr Korn- I love Beluga whales.

Julia Rodgers- I hate whales.

Mari Hackett- I broke Annie Leccese's nose.

Catherine Millane- I LOV3 B3LM0NT HiGH x33.

Andrew McCracken- I'm from Colorado.

Nicky Gosselin- I was born a ginger.

Caroline Knoblock- I can tie a cherry stem in a double knot with my tongue.

Julia Davidovitz- I have naturally straight hair and curl it every morning.

Alex Kozhemiakov- I once killed a man.

Anonymous- Well, I'm never going to give you up, let you down or run around and desert you.

Elizabeth Halprin- My name isn't actually Elizabeth.

Charles Ferraro- I had the privilege of playing basketball with an all scholastic.

LABBB

The LABBB Collaborative services students who have a variety of special needs. The acronym, LABBB, stands for the 5 towns that make up the collaborative: Lexington, Arlington, Bedford, Burlington and Belmont. The Belmont High School LABBB classroom is made up of students of varied academic levels and abilities. Many students participate in the vocational component of LABBB, working independent employment. Students also participate in a strong academic program both within the LABBB classroom and in the BHS mainstream, as appropriate. In addition, LABBB students are integrated into high school for clubs, as well as working in the School Store, which is a great learning experience for both LABBB and BHS students. The focus for all our Students is to build independence through a curriculum of both functional and traditional academics, social skills group and vocational training.

Asian American Club

We pull together people who are interested in Asian culture from all different grades and create a community whose purpose is basically to just have a blast. Clothespin ninjas, T-Shirt flash mobs, and Asian Culture Nights are just some of the jewels that make our club shine. Thanks to Ms. Chen for supporting us all the way.

Belmontian Club

BHS Dance Team

With over 50 people coming together every Wednesday and Friday afterschool to learn and practice dance under the direction of Mrs. Sandra Parks, students are given the opportunity to share and expand their knowledge of ballet, jazz, hip-hop, and modern styles of dance. As Mrs. Parks would say: "We love to dance."

French Club

French Club has undulated, but every year we support and participate in the Walk for Haiti, Partners in Health, and revel in French cinema.

May the legacy continue.

Gay-Straight Alliance

People from all spheres of gender and sexual identification are welcome to come discuss gay rights and arts in the BHS Gay-Straight Alliance. As long as you aren't Bill O'Reilly..

Feminist Alliance

Model UN

This is MUN's 2nd year at BHS. We learn how the UN works as well as become aware of global issues. This year we represented countries at two conferences, BosMUN and LexMUN. We have raised money for HERO, a UN campaign to help orphans and children affected by the AIDS epidemic in Africa.

Performing Arts Company

Things to remember:
The "devil" made us do it! ELIAS is a Puritan stallion.
"Thanks to Keven, KEVEN"
"ARE YOU STONED, WOMAN??"
Leo: beware of Don Alverzo's tweezers, they may stab you in the hand
"Time's up, Let's do this...."

P.s. Isn't she lovely?

PALS

It has been another amazing year together: we have had so much fun eating, doing activities, watching movies...and eating :) Special thanks to Ms. Melnikoff and Ms. Sabella for all your wonderful support and help!

Rugby

BRFC was started in the Spring of 2007 as a casual club for a handful of Belmont High School students who wanted to learn rugby. This season BRFC embarks on its third year of match play and is eager to participate in both the NERFU tournament and the Massachusetts State Tourney.

Girls Rugby

Rugby teams are families. You train together, you play together, you hit each other, and you pick each other up...on and off the field. For the first year, we give you the Belmont Girl's Rugby Football Club (BGRFC).

Science Club

Under the superior dictatorship of Martin Richard and Alison Liou, the Science Club continued to be a force to be reckoned with in the Western Suburban Science League, the Science Bowl, and the Science Olympiad competitions.

And yes, we are way cooler than the Math Team.

Ultimate Frisbee

The Belmont Ultimate Frisbee team is a club team that plays competitive Ultimate against nearby schools. The team competes in the high school league run by the Boston Ultimate Disc Alliance and plays in the state tournament held at the end of the season.
